

What do I do if I think my property is valued or classified incorrectly?

After you receive your value notice (generally mailed in February-March)

Examine your notice; if you have a question OR if you think your property assessment for this year is incorrect, follow these steps:

Step 1:

TALK TO YOUR ASSESSOR

- * Call the number listed on the notice.
- * Discuss your concerns with the assessor/appraiser.
- * Review sales information.

OR:

(Apply directly to Minnesota Tax Court)

Step 2:

Attend the "Board of Appeal and Equalization" or "Open Book" Meeting

- * The Board of Appeal and Equalization meets at the city or township level.
- * Meets in April or May.
- * Appeal in person, by letter or by designated representative.
- * Call your assessor - an appointment may be necessary.
-  "Open Book" meeting: If your notice refers to the "Open Book" meeting, this is held in lieu of the Board of Appeal and Equalization. "Open Book" refers to the informal assessment review process between the property owners and the assessor/appraiser. This is an informal opportunity to resolve assessment questions prior to the County Board of Appeal and Equalization.

Step 3:

Attend the County Board of Appeal and Equalization

- * You must first appeal to the Board of Appeal and Equalization
If your city has an "Open Book" meeting, you may appeal directly to the County Board of Appeal and Equalization. Although it is strongly recommended, you are not required to appear at the "Open Book" Meeting.
- *Meets in June
- *Appeal in person, by letter or by designated representative
- *Call the number listed on your valuation notice to make an appointment

Appeal to the Minnesota Tax Court

Appeals must be filed by May 1 of the year following the assessment
